

DEATH PENALTY IN-NAME-ONLY

(1) When was the last state execution you can recall?
[silence] See, can't even remember that because there are only endless appeals and life sentences. And that is drowned out the daily murders (aka Street Justice) reported by the local liberal media.

(2) So, of course, the Death Penalty doesn't deter crime because it exists IN-NAME-ONLY.

(3) Notice how no one (from the Media to the Left) has ever mentioned that those on Death Row are not 1st-time offenders. And those that have been "exonerated" with say, DNA evidence, are also NOT 1st-time offenders.

(4) That means that all those on Death Row, are (4a) probably "REPEAT OFFENDERS", and (4b) probably career criminals who feel no need to change their Evil ways, (4c) and have no fear of being executed for their many crimes, as they know the Death Penalty is IN-NAME-ONLY.
