

STEP UP LOUISIANA?

QUESTION: Is it A or B?

(A) Step Up Louisiana and pay $15/HR?

(B) Step Up Black Fathers?

MISSING BLACK FATHER => $15/HR MINIMUM WAGE

Where are the Black Fathers of these teenagers and Fast Food Workers families? Notice how there is no Real Man in their life to bring in any money whatsoever (while it's businesses via taxes who pay for Welfare, Food Stamps, Affordable Housing, Child Care, etc.)

Oh, wait, the Black Males are sitting on the neutral grounds (e.g., MLK Blvd) drinking beer 24/7, getting tattoos & dreadlocks, doing drugs, and selling drugs all over Orleans Parish.

So should it be, "Step Up, Louisiana and pay $15/hr"?

Or should it be, "Step Up, Black Fathers"?

Note: 90% of Black Women with Children in Orleans Parish are Single Parent Households.
