

MEDIA SILENT ON ELECTION DENIERS?

With this SECOND DELAY and HICCUPS in the SAME BATTLEGROUND STATES after two years since 2020 to clean up their act, it just solidifies and provides further proof to Conservatives and Independents that there is massive "cheating" by the Democrats for both 2020 and 2022.

Now, what are the Democrats, the Never-Trumpers, and the MEDIA going to say on this the 2nd time around? Florida and Texas have much larger populations than Pennsylvania, Arizona, and Nevada. Yet both FL and TX can have their election results in less than twelve (12) hours. So there is no excuse for those "other" battleground states, and this two years after 2020 to get their election acts together.

So let's grab some popcorn and see what the MEDIA will have to say about those "election deniers." Oh, and let's not forget the Media was constantly screaming that Masks and Covid19 Vaccines worked.

More Delays = More Cheating.
More Hiccups = More Cheating.
More Excuses = More Cheating.
