

Racist? Or, Righteous?

BACKGROUND INFO:

If you don't believe in rules and punishing lawbreakers because it will result in one race being adversely affected, why follow the Golden Rule, Love Thy Neighbor? In other words, how is turning a blind eye toward stealing, lying, & killing, by and within, a certain race of people, "loving thy neighbor"?

Or how is illegally entering a country and jumping ahead of those who waited in line, "loving thy neighbor"?

EQUALITY VERSUS MORALITY: What is more important, Equality or Morality? If you say Equality (or Social Justice), then you say Getting Even (i.e., Equal Outcomes) is more important than say Equal Protection of the Law, the 14th Amendment. Yet, with no Right or Wrong, you have no Justice, and likewise, no Peace, e.g., The Ghetto.

THE $64K QUESTION: In the end, when someone stands up for Right & Wrong and wants Laws enforced, even if one race will be adversely affected, is that "Racist" or "Righteous"?
